Name:
Date:
Student notes for: "The Legend of Keesh"
Day: 2
1. What does the illustration tell you about Keesh's village?
2. Reread paragraphs 1 and 2. What does the author teach us about the story's setting in the introduction?
3. What does the phrase "Today, many go hungry while you, the strong men of the village, stuff yourself with the best meat" tell us about the village and the council?
4. After Keesh returns from hunting, why do the men of the village make Keesh an "igloo more magnificent than the others?"
5. Why are some members of the village "suspicious" of Keesh after he returns from hunting? How does he change their minds?

story? Track key events from the beginning, middle and end of the story in the graphic organizer. Seesh's relationship to his village across the story:

Focus question: How does Keesh's relationship with his village change through the

Name: ______
Date:_____