

name:	Date:
Student notes for: After Being Convicted of Voting: A speech by Susan B. Anth	nony
Day: 3
1. According to Anthony, what is the purpose of the United States Constitution a Union?	and the formation of the
2. How does Anthony use the phrase, "supreme law of the land", in making her	argument?
3. Anthony disagrees with state laws denying women the right to vote. What rea	soning does Anthony provide to support this opinion?
4. How does Anthony support her statement regarding how women view the go hateful aristocracy on the globe"?	vernment as, "the most

. What role does the rhetorical question, "Are women persons?" play in Anthony's argument?
. What parallel does Anthony draw between women and "Negroes" in her conclusion?

Name:	Date:
Focus question: How does the structure of Anthony's argument contribuspeech, "After Being Convicted of Voting"?	te to the development ideas in her

