

Name: _____

Date: _____

Student notes for: “The Legend of Keesh”

Day: 4

1. Who is the “person” the author is referring to in the question at the very beginning of the story? How do you know?

2. Consider Keesh's life at the beginning of the story. What does "humble" mean? Include evidence from the text to support your answer.

3. A legend is someone who does something great. How is Keesh a legend?

4. Often, legends involve the main character going on a journey. What is Keesh's journey?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Focus question: The author starts the story with a question. What does he mean when he writes: “How does a person who began in humble circumstances become a legend”?

[illegible]

