Student notes for: “Because I could not stop for Death”

Day: 5

Culminating question: The subject of Dickinson’s poem “Because I could not stop for Death” is clearly death, but what ideas about death is Dickinson exploring in this poem? Using details from the poem, write an essay explaining what themes Dickinson explores in “Because I could not stop for Death” and how those themes interact with and build on one another to convey a larger idea about death.
