Student notes for: “The Tale of Jemima Puddle-Duck”

Day: 4

1. Where is the meal, that Jemima and the fox will eat, coming from?

2. How does the line “nibbling off snippets of all the different sorts of herbs that are used for stuffing roast duck” on page 17 build on the line “not even the mention of sage and onions made her suspicious” on page 16?

3. When Jemima returned to the farm to gather herbs for the dinner party, Kep “asked several questions about the wood, and about the exact position of the house and shed.” How does this sentence connect to the fox’s disappearance on page 22?

4. A simpleton is a person who is clueless and doesn’t make good decisions. What details from the text show that Jemima doesn’t make good decisions?

5. What was the fox’s plan when he offered Jemima a place to lay her eggs?
