

Name: _____

Date: _____

Students notes for: Jack and the Beanstalk

Day: 3

1. Reread these lines on page 6 using a voice that Jack might use, “Oh! Please! Do give me something to eat. I’ve had nothing to eat since yesterday morning, really and truly! I may as well be broiled, as die of hunger.” Why is Jack so hungry?

2. Reread the poem aloud on page 7 using a voice the giant might use. Look at the words carefully. What is the giant saying in this poem? In your own words, describe what the giant is saying.

3. Reread the first paragraph on page 9. How does the giant feel about the hen? What details from the text support your answer?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Focus Question: Characters can have different points of view, or different ways of seeing things. How are Jack's and the giant's reactions the same or different when Jack steals the harp?

Jack

Giant

