Terry McMillan, Principal

terry.mcmillan@hcsk12.net

Terry McMillan has been an educator since 2012, serving as a history teacher and coach across several school districts, including Harrison County (KY), Lauderdale County, Haywood County, and Tipton County. In the 2018–2019 school year, he served as a teacher and assistant football coach at Haywood High School. Mr. McMillan holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education from Union College and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Lipscomb University. Before his career in education, Mr. McMillan proudly served in the Army National Guard from 2006 to 2015. During his service, he was an infantry officer and platoon leader during Operation New Dawn at Joint Base Balad in Iraq. He is a Bronze Star recipient and also served as an instructor for the Army Officer Candidate School. Mr. McMillan and his wife, Hollie—who is a special education teacher at Crestview—have two children together. He is the proud father of three children.

TaNeezia Cook, Ed.S., Assistant Principal

taneezia.cook@hcsk12.net

TaNeezia Cook, a native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, has been an educator since 2011, beginning her career as a high school math teacher in Mississippi. Throughout her career, she has taught a diverse range of subjects and grade levels—including Kindergarten through 2nd grade Math, 3rd–5th grade Math and Social Studies, 6th-grade Math, 7th–8th-grade Computer Technology—and has also served as a Library Media Specialist at both the middle and high school levels. In addition to her classroom experience, Mrs. Cook has taken on leadership roles as a Middle School Instructional Coach and as a PLC Coach for 1st and 2nd grades at Haywood Elementary. Her educational journey has spanned across Mississippi, Alabama, and now Tennessee, with each chapter enriching her perspective and passion for student-centered learning. Mrs. Cook holds degrees from The University of Alabama (Roll Tide!), Mississippi State University, and The University of West Alabama. She is married with 3 children. In June 2024, she became the Assistant Principal of Student Options Academy, where she was dedicated to supporting student success through flexible, innovative learning pathways. She is committed to cultivating a school culture where every learner feels seen, supported, and empowered to thrive.

Brandon Moore, Assistant Principal

brandon.moore@hcsk12.net

Brandon Moore brings 28 years of dedicated service in education to his role as Assistant Principal at Haywood Middle School, where he is entering his third year. Throughout his career, he has made a lasting impact in both the Milan Special School District, where he served for 15 years, and the Crockett County School District, where he spent 11 years shaping the lives of students and supporting fellow educators. Mr. Moore is passionate about fostering a positive learning environment and is committed to the academic and personal growth of both students and staff. His leadership is grounded in experience, empathy, and a deep-rooted belief in the power of education. Outside of school, Mr. Moore enjoys spending quality time with his family—his wife, Beth, daughter, Anna-Caroline, and son, Miles. A true outdoorsman, he can often be found hunting or fishing when he's not on campus. Mr. Moore's unwavering dedication to education and strong ties to the community make him a valued and respected leader at Haywood Middle School.

Hannah Byrd, PLC Coach

Hannah.byrd@hcsk12.net

Hannah Byrd has been an educator for six years, with most of that time spent as a 7th-grade math teacher at Haywood Middle School. She is now entering her third year as a PLC Coach, where she plays a key role in fostering teacher collaboration and supporting instructional growth across the school. Mrs. Byrd earned her Bachelor's degree in Education from the University of Memphis. A proud Brownsville native and graduate of Haywood High School, she is deeply committed to giving back to the community that shaped her. She is married to her husband, Dalton, and together they have one son, Henry.
